TRAMMELL CROW COMPANY PROMOTES SCOTT ELLERMAN TO ASSOCIATE IN DALLAS

DALLAS – Trammell Crow Company \(TCC\) announces that Scott Ellerman has been promoted to Associate within the firm’s Dallas/Fort Worth Business Unit. In this role, he will be responsible for underwriting new development and acquisition opportunities, providing analytic support for asset management of assets owned long-term, producing investment packages, and supporting Jake Marks in growing the Industrial development business in DFW by focusing on the leasing of existing product.

“Scott has become an integral part of the Industrial development team and has made great strides in his knowledge of the development business,” said Jake Marks, Principal with TCC’s Dallas/Fort Worth Business Unit. “We look forward to seeing continued growth and success in his new position.”

Scott joined the TCC DFW team in summer 2016 as a Financial Analyst after graduating from the University of Texas at Austin. In this role Scott has focused on financial modeling, coordinating financial underwriting of prospective Industrial projects, the preparation of investment committee packages, various Industrial marketing needs, and more.
